

Dil Raj is a hot favourite for final

By Adam Civico

A BARNSELY curry house has been chosen as the best in the north at an award ceremony.

Dil Raj at Dodworth was named the best Indian restaurant at the regional British and Bangladeshi Business Link awards, at Old Trafford football stadium.

Manager Miron Rahman, 35, said he was delighted to have won after being nominated by loyal customers. The award was based largely on comments from them.

Miron said: "We're delighted it's the first time Dil Raj has won anything like this. We're proud."

The restaurant now goes through to a national final with the best 50 in the UK.
